C.H.S. HAS A YEAR

In the time we see pass from one day to the next, history is created in our school. The creators of that history live normal lives as many other students throughout the United States. But it's different somehow, in the way that this is our school, our life, our problems, and our fun. And so, to those students who someday may wish to look back upon the years of their school days, we dedicate this book to those students who made or are making the history of our school.

In the years to come there are many of us who may wish to look back and remember. To some there will be questions of whether anything worth remembering ever happened to them, but no questions as to the plans they made. They joined clubs, went to classes, studied, met new friends, cheered on the teams and went to dances. They had fun in doing it and it was hard work to keep on having it, but this is their school, their time to cherish.

BEGINNING OF THE END

I'll miss you my friend
For time went too fast,
But deep down inside
The memory will last.

We've all had our laughs
And sometimes our cries,
But this time my friend
It looks like good-bye.

Farewell to those books
Farewell to those rules,
Hello new world
I hope that you're cool.

One more song
One more dance,
One more dream
We'll all take that chance.

One more song to sing
As tears fill our eyes,
This is the beginning of the year
We say good-bye.

By Kathy Martin

Dennis Mort plays tough for the Eagles.

First year coach B. Klitzman with the help of his assistants S. Rich, J. Lange and G. DeRossett turned a group of 42 athletes into a competitive, hard-hitting football team. The team was weak in some areas, but that was balanced out by the overall strength that was contained in the spirit and intelligence of the players.

The team fought hard to be rated 8th in the state half way through the season with a 3 and 2 record. Coach Klitzman was quoted as saying "I'm proud of our people," and proud he should have been as the Eagles finished a fine season with a 5 and 5 record.
